- 100g lonktong fruit

Methods and Directions

PERFUME WITH INFUSED DILMAH TEA

PERFUME WITH INFUSED DILMAH TEA

- Mix all the ingredients in a jar, shake well and transfer to the final container.

- Use sterilised equipment only.

SOLID PERFUME WITH DILMAH TEA INFUSION

SOLID PERFUME WITH DILMAH TEA INFUSION

- Double boil beeswax with almond oil.
- Remove from fire and add the other ingredients.
- Stir well and transfer into the final container.
- Scatter some tea leaves on top. Let it cool down.
- Use sterilised equipment only.

DILMAH TEA INFUSED ESSENTIAL OIL

DILMAH TEA INFUSED ESSENTIAL OIL

- Mix tea with essential oil and keep in an airtight jar for at least 24 hours (or several weeks for a stronger fragrance).
- Use a strainer to remove leaves and any particles.
- Store in a cool, dark place. Use sterilised equipment only.

LYCHEE WITH ROSE AND ALMOND INFUSED PINEAPPLE

LYCHEE WITH ROSE AND ALMOND INFUSED PINEAPPLE

- Prepare the tea by infusing it for 4 minutes in water.
- Stir in the sugar.
- Add the cleaned pineapple into the liquid and cook at 62°C for 1½ hours.
- Leave the pineapple in the syrup to be infused with the flavour of tea.

The Custard

- Mix the egg yolk with sugar to form a 'ruban'.
- Melt the butter with lemon juice and white chocolate. Add this to the 'ruban'.
- Mix well and keep in the fridge till required.
- Slice the pineapple and remove the centre. Place 1 slice in a soup plate, place the custard cream in the centre and top up with fresh lonktong fruit.
