Methods and Directions

Green Tea Opera with Dark Chocolate

Green tea almond sponge

- Whisk together the whole eggs, icing sugar, and almond meal in a medium size bowl. This will become your 'whole egg blend'.
- In a separate bowl whisk the egg whites, slowly adding the caster sugar until soft peaks form. This will form your meringue mixture.
- Softly fold the meringue into the whole egg blend.
- Then fold in the sifted flour and green tea powder.
- Add the melted butter and spread the mixture thinly over a 60cm x 40cm lined baking tray.
- Bake at 220°C for 6 minutes and remove from the oven onto a cooling rack.

Green tea buttercream

- Boil the sugar and the water in a medium saucepan until the temperature reaches 118°C.
- Whisk egg whites in a mixer until the liquid dissolves and then slowly add the boiling sugar in a steady stream.
- Add the green tea powder.
- Slowly add the cubes of soft butter.
- Whip until all ingredients are combined well.
- Do not refrigerate before use.

Chocolate ganache

- Heat milk and cream in a medium saucepan on the stove until it almost reaches boiling point.
- Place the dark chocolate in a small size bowl.
- Pour boiling milk and cream over the chocolate.
- Let this stand for 2 minutes.
- Slowly mix until it forms a smooth consistency.

- Add melted butter to finish.
- Allow to cool and thicken before use.

To combine

- Cut the green tea and almond sponge into four even quarters.
- Place one sponge quarter in a 15cm x 40cm lined rectangular cake tin.
- Spread a thin layer of the green tea buttercream evenly on the sponge.
- Place another layer of sponge on top.
- Spread a thin layer of chocolate ganache over the second layer of sponge.
- Repeat steps 2–5 for the remaining two sponges.
- Once complete, place the Green Tea Opera creation in the refrigerator for 1 hour to set.
- Cut and serve.
